

SLE Application Process

If you are interested in becoming an SLE:

- Attend an information session – if offered by the TSA
- Download an application form from the website or contact the Teaching School you wish to work with
- Ask your Head Teacher to check that he/she is willing to support your work outside of school and pay for the compulsory Core Training day (£200)
- Fill in the application form, contact your referees. request references and Submit application and references to the relevant Teaching School

If you are successful at this stage you will be invited to an assessment day which will consist of:

- A presentation
- Formal interview questions
- There may also be a written exercise and/or a group exercise on this day

The final assessment stage is a Compulsory Core Training Day

- This is a standardised day for the Eastern Region
- A certificate designating you as an SLE will only be given on the successful completion of this day
- There will be pre-task activities that you will be asked to undertake by your SLE Coordinator and/or SLE Core Training Centre before you attend this day
